

GRAND WAILEA RESORT HOTEL & SPA UNVEILS A NEW NAPUA TOWER

MAUI, HAWAII. (January 29, 2007) – For more than 15 years, Grand Wailea Resort Hotel & Spa has been a special haven for vacationing families, couples and groups looking to experience Maui's very best. The legendary resort unveils a newly renovated Napua Tower, the private club-area situated at the center of the hotel, featuring 100 guestrooms with upgraded accommodations, dedicated concierge services, private check-in, private lounges and a gated entrance.

“Napua Tower is our exclusive hotel within the hotel,” said General Manager Matthew Hart. “It appeals to the discriminating traveler who is looking for privacy as well as personal attention. Napua Tower offers highly customized amenities and services, starting with your personal Concierge who will contact you in advance to make all necessary arrangements.”

The Hawaiian-themed Napua Tower guestrooms, which offer 715 square feet of space for Club Rooms, 1,300 square feet of space for Suites and 5,500 square feet of space for the Grand Suites, have been redesigned to incorporate European accents throughout. With new carpeting and freshly painted buttercup walls, the graciously appointed rooms feature lavish dark wood furnishings, 32' high-definition televisions new soft goods and new artwork. All of the spacious bathrooms include oversized soaking tubs, new seamless glass shower enclosures, marble counters and double sinks.

Guests of the exclusive Napua Tower enjoy a personalized check-in and the services of a dedicated concierge staff, who will contact you prior to your visit with special requests, dinner reservations and activities. Napua Tower also offers access to one of two private lounges serving complimentary breakfast each morning and cocktails and hors d'oeuvres in the early evening.
